

April 13, 2017

Lebanon, Indiana – The board of directors of the Boone County Chamber of Commerce has named Diane Schultz as its new executive director.

“We are extremely pleased to have Diane lead the Boone County Chamber into a new chapter of growth,” said Chamber President Bob Clampitt. “Her experience gives her a jump start and we look forward to a more collaborative county-wide approach for this organization.”

Schultz most recently served as Director of Member Services and Interim Executive Director for the Zionsville Chamber of Commerce.

“Diane was a great addition to the Zionsville Chamber of Commerce,” said Zionsville Chamber President Kris Patel. “I know that the Boone County Chamber of Commerce is in good hands with Diane’s commitment and work ethic. Zionsville Chamber will sorely miss her presence, but we wish her well in her new endeavor and look forward to future collaboration.”

Schultz said she is looking forward to working with other Boone County organizations to promote a vibrant region for businesses to prosper, individuals to live, and visitors to shop, dine, and enjoy recreational activities.

Prior to working for the Zionsville Chamber, Schultz was a marketing representative for Senior1Care.

She grew up in Zionsville and lived there until eighth grade. She and her husband, John, moved back to the area about 13 years ago.

Schultz and her husband are the parents of three children, Brittney, 25; Grant, 21; and Maria, 20.

The Chamber will host an open house to welcome Schultz from 5 to 7 p.m. on Wednesday, May 3, at People’s Revel Room on the square in Lebanon. All are welcome to attend.

###